Is the joy of the household, for without it no happiness can be complete. Angels smile at and commend the thoughts and aspirations of the mother bending over the cradle. The ordeal through which the expectant mother must pass is such that she looks forward with dread to the hour when she shall feel the thrill of motherhood. The collection and preservation of early history in Kansas, and the purpose of instilling patriotism in the youth of that state, was the predominant theme of the addresses delivered before the Council of Women's Clubs at the Grand Hotel, Kansas City, Kan., at a meeting in commemoration of Kansas Day.

An enthusiastic audience of 100 women accorded a warm welcome to the principal speaker of the day, Mrs. J. S. Simmons of Hutchinson, president of the Woman's Kansas Day club.

Mrs. Simmons, who is one of the best known club women in the state, devoted the greater portion of her address to an effort to arouse in the hearts of her hearers a realization of the necessity for marking the state's history. A strong appeal was made to the women of Kansas City, Kan., for co-operation in carrying on this work. "The United States," declared the speaker, "has become recognized as the nation of refuge, a place to which the innocent may flee from the wrath of the avenger, and where justice, tempered with mercy, is meted out impartially. Even as we owe this, our great nation, to the heroic men and women of the past, we owe it to the future to hold in reverence the memory of our ancestors who braved a thousand dangers that the great arid plains of Kansas might be made to blossom into a loveliness unsurpassed by any state in the Union. It is then both fitting and proper that all the women of Kansas should assist in this great work, commemorating those early Kansas days."

Commenting upon the movement which is gaining favor throughout the state, that of marking the state's history and the erection of a monument at Pawnee Rock, Mrs. Simmons said that the women of the state were responding nobly and that the work was practically assured. Benjamin P. Unruh has decided to the state of Kansas five acres of land, including the old Pawnee Rock fort. The only condition attached to this gift is that the sum of $4,000 must be raised to make improvements about this natural park.

Of this sum $3,000 has been raised. To assist in this work the Woman's Kansas Day club has published a small booklet entitled "Pawnee Rock, the Old Fort." This booklet contains anecdotes and stories of early Kansas life by the pen of many prominent Kansas writers.

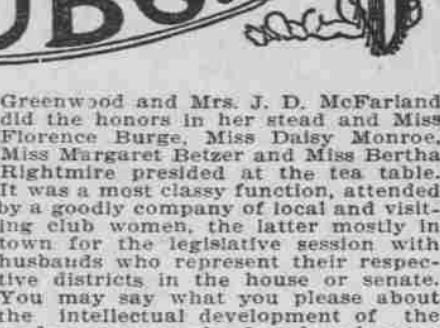

Mrs. A. H. Horton of Topeka is the most prominent candidate for president of the Woman's Kansas Day club which holds its annual meeting on Kansas day, to be followed by an election of officers the next morning. Mrs. Horton has been prominent in club and P. A. R. work in Kansas for many years. She is at present secretary of the W. K. D. club and is a past president of the Topeka federation of clubs. Mrs. Horton is an active candidate for the position, but the Good Government club of Topeka, the parent organization of the W. K. D. club, is backing Mrs. E. L. Ellis of Ellis as being talked of for first vice president. There are also district vice presidents, one from each of the eight congressional districts to be elected.

In city federation circles not much is being discussed except the February meeting to be held on the eighth when Edmund Vance Cook, the poet and reader, comes to Topeka to give a lecture under the auspices of the federation. Mr. Cook will be the guest of the federation in the afternoon at Unity church and will give his lecture that night. Mrs. F. W. Watson, the president, who is in Florida, will return for the meeting.

Those Thursday "tea-fights" which the suffragettes, the club women and other high browers are holding during the midwinter in the booth occupied by the editorial staff of the Club members are quite the social feature of the exposition. Mrs. L. D. Monroe was ill last Thursday and unable to receive but Mrs. W. A. McCarter, Mrs. Lewis H.
